3. Hanna Pocket Water Resistant pH and Temperature Meters

- Water resistant, accurate and portable, these handy little pocket meters can go anywhere. Also designed to float if accidentally dropped in water. Features the HI-73127 replaceable electrode with a stainless steel round connector and extendable cloth junction.
- Dual LCD screen that displays pH and temperature readings simultaneously
- Exposed temperature sensor provides fast response time
- Replaceable pH electrode helps to prolong the life
- Automatic buffer recognition and calibration
- Robust, replaceable electrodes
- Proximity of temperature sensor to pH electrode guarantees greater accuracy in temperature compensated readings
- Calibrate directly with Hanna buffer solution sachets
- Battery % displayed on start up with battery error prevention system (BEPS) to support optimum operation
- Supplied with HI-73127 pH electrode, electrode removal tool, batteries and instructions
